Vance was a USMC Lance Corporal or E3. He did 1 4yr enlistment and used his GI Bill to go to Yale. Tim Walz was a 24yr Command SgtMaj (E-9) which is highest enlisted rank. Vance judging military service of Tim Walz is like a fry cook at McDonald's judging job performance of VP of Operations. He has no clue.

occiwan

1habout an hour ago

I'm not going to disparage anyone's service record but I will make an observation. One guy has an extensive military career with many accomplishments and the other was enlisted for four years assigned to the public relations office. The two are not the same and for the low rank PR guy to talk trash about a superior NCO shows me the PR guy never learned discipline, respect and professionalism.

wrath_of_chaka_khan

Notice he says "were you ever in war" and "combat zone" - not "were you ever in combat". Because JD Vance was never in actual combat either. You can also be in a war without being in combat. Anybody active duty supporting a war effort is in war. I was in Desert Storm in a war zone but not in combat. I was in a combat zone 11 times in Afghanistan, but not actually in war as I was a civilian.

JD is using carefully chosen phrases here to act like he was something he wasn't.

That's Stolen Valor.

I've gotten this response myself. I don't get it. HOW is providing hygiene products "grooming?" How is it any more grooming than providing the basics of toilet paper and hand soap in the same bathroom? Or towels in the locker room? These are the minimum hygienic necessities of a civilized society (so is feeding children, so long as we're on the subject).

If you see something sexual about tampons, that's because you're a creepy weirdo.

I have worked in corporate America for nearly three decades and every office I've worked in has had free feminine hygiene products in the restrooms. And it's just another simple, subtle way to make Vance look like the absolute shitbag he is. A school teacher knows exactly how to wrangle folks like this. If Vance has the courage to debate him, it'll make the beat down Biden gave Paul Ryan back in 2012 look like a warmup.

They turned military service into a movie of bearded steely-eyed SEALs and you're either a hero or you're nothing. For them, if you're not kicking in doors and killing terrorists with your bare hands, you ain't a vet. And no matter how shitty of beard they grow, they'll never be a steely-eyed SEAL. I spent most of my adult life in the military. I was lucky to have served with men and women I admired and respected, both up and down the chain of command. Years later, after we'd all retired, Trump came along and some of those people I'd served with fell under his foul spell. Like Jackson here, they turned their backs on their former comrades, threw away their honor and forgot their duty, spit on their own service and ours too.

Trump never served. He ran away. He's not ashamed. He gloats about it.

JD Vance, he served. He did what the Marines needed him to do and went where they told him to go. He wasn't any hero and that's okay, most aren't. Doing your duty is enough. But Vance is ASHAMED of not being a snake eater. Because that's what Republicans turned service into, Hollywood heroism.

So, MAGAs denigrate Walz's service. Because they are ashamed of their own, and they're ashamed Trump himself ran away when called.

kim\_p\_rdh

It's high time that the republicans learned that people are not going to fall for their negative hateful rhetoric any longer. We had 4 years of Trump and his hate field administration. It's time to let the sunshine through again. People want to be happy not angry. We don't need to look down on any other persons to make us feel good, we already feel good.

And that includes Elon (who in truth pre-X was very polite to staff, as were most of our onstage guests). An Israeli airstrike on a Gaza school kills at least 80 people, Palestinian health officials say

The Israeli military acknowledged the strike, claiming it hit a Hamas command center within the school. Hamas denied that.

What You Need To Know

The Israeli military acknowledged the strike, claiming it hit a Hamas command center within the school. Hamas denied that

The strike hit without warning in the early morning before sunrise as people were praying at a mosque inside the school, according to Abu Anas, a witness who worked to rescue people

Israeli intelligence indicated about 20 militants from Hamas and Islamic Jihad, including senior commanders, were using the Tabeen school compound to plan attacks on Israeli forces, Lt. Col. Nadav Shoshani, an Israeli military spokesman said in a statement

Shoshani also questioned the casualty numbers issued by the Palestinian Health Ministry

Man who attacked police at the U.S. Capitol with poles gets 20 years, one of longest Jan. 6 sentences

By Associated Press Washington

UPDATED 3:43 PM PT Aug. 09, 2024 PUBLISHED 11:35 AM PT Aug. 09, 2024

WASHINGTON — A California man with a history of political violence was sentenced on Friday to 20 years in prison for repeatedly attacking police with flagpoles and other makeshift weapons during the Jan. 6, 2021, riot at the U.S. Capitol.

David Nicholas Dempsey's sentence is among the longest among hundreds of Capitol riot prosecutions. Prosecutors described him as one of the most violent members of the mob of Donald Trump supporters that attacked the Capitol as lawmakers met to certify Joe Biden's 2020 presidential election victory.

Dempsey, who is from Van Nuys, stomped on police officers' heads. He swung poles at officers defending a tunnel, struck an officer in the head with a metal crutch and attacked police with pepper spray and broken pieces of furniture, prosecutors said. He climbed atop other rioters, using them like "human scaffolding" to reach officers guarding a tunnel entrance. He injured at least two police officers, prosecutors said.

"Your conduct on January 6th was exceptionally egregious," U.S. District Judge Royce Lamberth told Dempsey. "You did not get carried away in the moment."

Dempsey pleaded guilty in January to two counts of assaulting police officers with a dangerous weapon.

It's more that Trump doesn't *care* about what's true and what's false. He only cares about whether a particular factual assertion reflects upon him or impacts him positively or negatively.

In other words, his view of reality is purely instrumental.

Also, he's really dumb.

HOWEVER, let me point out that there's nothing wrong with being a "combat correspondent." We do the jobs the military needs us to do. Some kick in doors, some fly fighter jets, some fix those jets, some of us pilot ships or drive tanks, and some of us write about it. Because that's what the military needs us to do.

The ONLY reason Americans see anything other than Hollywood SEAL Sniper as a less-than veteran is because Faux Macho Men like JD Vance himself made it that way.

Kamala Harris, whose "Honeymoon" period is ENDING, and is starting to get hammered in the Polls, just copied my NO TAXES ON TIPS Policy. The difference is, she won't do it, she just wants it for Political Purposes! This was a TRUMP idea - She has no ideas, she can only steal from me. All bodies recovered after 62 die in Brazil plane crash

9 hours ago

BBC News

Voepass said earlier that the ATR 72-500 was carrying 57 passengers and four crew between Cascavel in the southern state of Paraná to Guarulhos airport in São Paulo city. But it later confirmed there was [[another unaccounted-for passenger]] on the flight.

Footage circulating on social media showed a plane descending vertically, spiralling as it fell.

The aircraft crashed in a residential area, but no-one on the ground was injured.

Officials said only one home in a local condominium complex was damaged.

The state of São Paulo said it concluded its operation to remove the victims' bodies from the site at 18:30 local time (22:30 BST) on Saturday.

It added that the bodies - 34 males and 28 females - were being moved to a police morgue in the city of São Paulo, where they will be identified and released to the families.

Two of the victims, the captain and first officer, have already been identified, the state confirmed. The Uopeccan Cancer Hospital in Cascavel told BBC Brasil that two of its trainee doctors were among the passengers who died.

Trump campaign says its internal messages hacked by Iran

12 hours ago

Mike Wendling

BBC News•@mwendling

Donald Trump's campaign has said some of its internal communications have been hacked and suggested it was targeted by Iranian operatives.

US news website Politico reported on Saturday that it had been emailed campaign documents including internal research carried out on Trump's running mate, Ohio Senator JD Vance.

"These documents were obtained illegally from foreign sources hostile to the United States, intended to interfere with the 2024 election," a campaign spokesman told the BBC.

Politico said it had confirmed the authenticity of the documents. The BBC has not independently verified the claims.

NPR:

PARIS — The United States came out on top in the Olympic medal count in Paris, with a stunning total of 126 medals, including 40 gold.

How did the U.S. do it? Swimming and track

Once again in Paris, America's Olympic engine fired on two cylinders: swimming and track.

In the pool, U.S. swimmers led by Katie Ledecky and Torri Huske, racked up 28 medals, including 8 gold.

On the track, American athletes were even more dominant winning 34 total medals, 14 gold.

Those two sporting disciplines alone accounted for roughly half of the total U.S. medal tally.

For those thinking Trump is positioning himself to plead insanity, it will never happen. Trying to normalize his psychopathy is an exercise in futility. He is a malignant narcissist who will only get increasingly worse. He will not change, and his concrete thinking does not afford him the ability to strategize or even plan -- it's all rage, vengeance, and gut reactions paired with an insatiable need to satisfy his very primitive goals.

The Project2025 training videos that Propublica obtained are a lot, and you don't need to watch all of them (but if you do, watch at a faster speed so the droning white men don't put you to sleep).

If you only have time or the stomach for one, make it this one. The women are "deconstructing" leftist language and the do it for 5 topics. 1/2
youtube.com/watch...

drmaraeinstein

2h2 hours ago

The 5 Topics covered are:

- 1) Women, Children & Family
- 2) Environment
- 3) Human Rights and Border Security
- 4) The Gender Cult
- 5) Equity

The arguments they use are old tropes we have seen before. That they ignore that the language they use has consequences is, of course, ignored.

Linguists and PR folks will likely find this particularly interesting.

Statement on Donald Trump's Interview with Elon Musk

Donald Trump's extremism and dangerous Project 2025 agenda is a feature not a glitch of his campaign, which was on full display for those unlucky enough to listen in tonight during whatever that was on X.com.

Trump's entire campaign is in service of people like Elon Musk and himself — self-obsessed rich guys who will sell out the middle class and who cannot run a livestream in the year 2024.

Before she married Eric and became a Trump, Lara Trump was a dabbler. She'd interned at North Carolina TV stations after college, gone to culinary school, and started selling custom cakes. She rescued some animals and became a personal trainer.

But then, after six years of dating, in 2014, she married the former president's younger son. The union launched her into the world of Fox News, political campaigns, and in the top post at the Republican National Committee.
